

Ethics and Power - The Columbia Accident Case Study Scoring Guide

Due Date: End of Unit 5.

Percentage of Course Grade: 15%.

Ethics and Power - The Columbia Accident Case Study Scoring Guide Grading Rubric

Criteria	Non-performance	Basic	Proficient	Distinguished
Analyze how the political environment influences internal decision making. 25%	Fails to address how the political environment influences internal decision making.	Identifies but does not analyze how the political environment influences internal decision making.	Analyzes how the political environment influences internal decision making.	Evaluates how the political environment influences internal decision making.
Evaluate the responsible and irresponsible uses of administrative power. 25%	Fails to address the responsible and irresponsible uses of administrative power.	Analyzes but does not evaluate the responsible and irresponsible uses of administrative power.	Evaluates the responsible and irresponsible uses of administrative power.	Evaluates the responsible and irresponsible uses of administrative power and supports the argument with additional references to the literature.
Evaluate how the RADAR model might have impacted the decision making. 25%	Fails to address how the RADAR model might have impacted the decision making.	Analyzes how the RADAR model might have impacted the decision making.	Evaluates how the RADAR model might have impacted the decision making.	Synthesizes the RADAR model with the decision making.
Use effective academic and professional communication skills to explain the relationship between ethics and leadership. 25%	Fails to use effective academic and professional communication skills to explain the relationship between ethics and leadership.	Academic and professional communication skills are insufficient to explain the relationship between ethics and leadership.	Uses effective academic and professional communication skills to explain the relationship between ethics and leadership.	Uses exemplary academic and professional communication skills to explain the relationship between ethics and leadership.