

Convention: Let X and Y be non-empty sets of real numbers. Let $g : X \rightarrow Y$ be a function.

1. Negate the definition of the function $g : X \rightarrow Y$ being onto. (8 points)

A function g from X to Y is onto if every element of Y must have at least one x in X such that $g(x) = y$.