Re: Kudler Plan

Hi Kathy -

I can't believe it's already been 2 weeks since the 4th! Where does the time go? We had a great time and all of the barbeque stains came out of your brother's shirt - thanks for that stain fighting tip; married to your brother, I'm sure I'll be using that one a lot!

Remember in April when you said that that CPA who did your taxes was telling you that you needed a strategic plan and was trying to get you to hire him for $3,000 to prepare one for you? Well, one of the admin assistants was telling me that her daughter is going to be entering her senior year at college in August and they have to do a major project during their senior year. Get this, the senior year curriculum is centered on business planning. Maybe her project could be analyzing the stores and preparing your strategic plan. You could have her work in some of the various departments - cashiering, bagging, stocking, filing - and pay her a couple of hundred dollars for her efforts while she gets a feel for the business. Do you want me to talk to her mother and get you in touch with her?
