

Problem:  $m_1$  starts from rest at height  $h$ .

At the bottom of the frictionless slope stands mass  $m_2$ .

$m_1$  is then let go, and hits  $m_2$  an elastic collision.

What will be the final height  $m_1$  will attain after recoiling from  $m_2$ ?