

5) Use the integration capabilities of a graphing utility to approximate the volume of the solid below the surface given by $f(x, y) = \frac{x}{\sqrt{1-y^2}}$ and above the region in the xy -plane bounded by the graphs of $x = 0$, $y = \frac{1}{2}$, and $y = x$. Round your answers to three decimal places.